Striker Short Circuited Line and Delayed Traffic for Some Time.

While Mediation Meetings Are Being Held the Situation in Chicago Is Quiet. Another Line Started Service Today. General Strike Feared.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—The Chicago City Railway Co. has effected plans for opening up three more of its trunk lines before the close of the week. The general plan of procedure drawn up by the police and the management provides for the starting of the Indiana avenue electric cars today, the Halstead street, tomorrow, and the State street cable trains on Friday. Passengers have begun to take the Wentworth avenue cars in such large numbers that the police no longer fear riots along this right of way. Within a few days, a similar condition is expected in Cottage Grove avenue, which was opened up yesterday. Little or no trouble is looked for in Indiana avenue, but the management of the company dreads the effect of sending out cars in Halstead and State streets.

SHOULD
Mediation Undertaken By Harrison
Fail, There is Trouble in Sight.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Mayor Harrison and his mediation committee held an afternoon conference with representatives of the company and of the strikers today. Avert the possibility of a sympathetic strike on other street car lines in Chicago, President Mahon, of the Amalgamated Association of the street car employees said: "I will not recommend a general strike, but should the proposition be put up for the men to vote upon, there is a strong probability that they would vote to strike. This is especially true of Union Traction men, who feel justifiably indignant over tactics used by their company to aid the City Railway Company in the present strike."

Union Traction superintendents and firemen have been on guard at places where their lines intersect the city railway lines, and in three cases that I know of, have asked for the arrest of Union Traction men whom they accused of delaying city railway cars."

Other Lines Started.
Chicago, Nov. 18.—While negotiations for peace between the City Railway and its striking employees were pending in the city hall through the offices of Mayor Harrison and the aldermanic arbitration committee, a third line of the company's strike-bound cars was put in operation today, under police protection. Five cars on the Indiana avenue line were started under guard of patrolmen drawn from the Wentworth and Cottage Grove lines where trouble had apparently subsided almost to the point of disappearance.

MAIN FEATURES AGREED TO.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—The main features of the Hay-Bunau-Varilla treaty, providing for the construction of an isthmian canal by the Panama route, are agreed on and a rough draft of the convention is in preparation. No date for the signing of the treaty has yet been fixed.

The Panama minister and Secretary Hay, will have another conference today regarding the treaty. It is thought that the members of the Panama commission who arrived in New York yesterday will remain there for the present as it is said their presence is not needed here in connection with the negotiations for

CHEROKEE REFUSED CLEARANCE PAPERS.

New York, Nov. 18.—Consul General Galvan, of San Domingo, refused to sign clearance papers for the Clyde line steamer Cherokee to the five Colombian ports in the hands of the insurgents for which the Cherokee sails today, but granted clearance papers for the ports of San Domingo and Azua, which were at last reports, in possession of the government. The papers were issued by the local customs officials.

BUT LITTLE
Attempt Was Made to Delay Cars On
Indiana Street.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Except for a few stones on the tracks, there was no attempt to delay the Indiana avenue cars on the way to the business center from the barns, at 39th street. Neither strikers nor their sympathizers were present in any great numbers and the street presented almost its usual appearance as the five cars sped along. On the return, however, considerable delay was caused by the "short-circuiting" of the line. A rope had been thrown over the trolley wire and a heavy copper wire drawn up until the two met and diverted the current. A repair wagon was hurried to the rescue, however, and the obstacle was soon removed.

The Wentworth and Cottage Grove avenue cars met with only trifling interference and carried a largely increased number of passengers. The weather had much to do with clearing the streets of loiterers. A biting north west wind appeared to have tempered the enthusiasm of the union sympathizers, while drivers of wagons were little inclined to interfere.

In compliance with a request of the striking stationary engineers formerly in the employ of the Chicago City Railway Co., the city board of examining engineers sent Inspector J. J. Delaney to the company's power house to investigate the allegation that ordinances were being violated. Delaney reported that he found a few technical violations, but that they were of minor importance. Gen. Manager McCulloch, he said, was remedying the irregularities as rapidly as possible.

The bill of indictment against Senator Dietrich has not been permitted by Judge Munger to be made public, and will not be given out, it is stated, until the senator has appeared to give bond.

The bill against Fisher, however, was made public today. It is as follows:

PILES OF MONEY SENT FEAR AWAY.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 18.—The run on the Pennsylvania Trust Company continued today, but there was a diminution in the number of withdrawals. Most of the callers were from the country districts and all were promptly given their money. Several drove home with $1,000 to $2,000 and they were warned to look out for robbers. Many came to withdraw their deposits, but when they saw the great piles of cash and officials ready to accommodate them they left entirely satisfied.

It is believed that by tomorrow the excitement among the depositors will have entirely subsided.

WILL NOT PLEDGE TO

Any of the Resolutions Which Favor Some Form of Socialism.

Supporters of the Idea Take Exceptions to the Committee's Report, and Urge That Socialism Is the Cure Which the Federation of Labor Is Looking for.

Boston, Nov. 18.—Discussion of the question as to whether the American Federation of Labor should place itself on record as favoring socialism, was resumed today at the convention of the organization. The matter came up when a committee reported unfavorably, five resolutions, the adoption of any or all of which meant the pledging of the Federation to some form of socialism. D. V. Richmond, president of the Railway Clerks International Association, today, declared that his organization would withdraw if the Federation adopted socialistic ideas.

Unanimous consent was refused to delegate Chas. Dodd, of the Piano Makers union of Chicago, to introduce a resolution urging wage workers to vote for trade unionists. Chas. Lavin, the delegate from Wilkesbarre, urged the convention to adopt the resolutions. He urged that there was something wrong with the body politic and that socialism would cure the evils. He declared that boys and girls are taken from school early and put to work in the factories and mills, and pointed out that the more boys there are at work, the worse it is for the men, and he saw no political party that would stop these conditions except the socialists.

Delegates Krett, of Philadelphia, and Slayton, of New Castle, Pa., addressed the chair in opposition to the committee's unfavorable report. Delegate Krett stated that no political party except the socialist had made reference in their platform in France, last year to the coal strike.

The state department has declined the recognition, informing Mr. Giordan that it has been the unbroken policy of the state department to recognize only de facto governments and if Minister Powell says that the revolutionists have actually established a capital and opened ports and is able to protect life and property, he will recognize it.

THE STAGE.
No more welcome attraction could have been secured for tonight, at the Faurot Opera House, than Denman Thompson's latest success, "Our New Minister" which the local management is fortunate enough to secure for a return date. This new production of the "Old Homestead" author on its recent visit here was the most remarkable hit in its special line that our theatre goes have known for years. The audience simply went wild with enthusiasm over the production, and the splendid acting. There can be no doubt of the business that "Our New Minister" will do at this engagement, it is sure of a crowded house and a cordial welcome. "Our New Minister" is a fine production of a simple, decent story with dramatic situations and stirring incidents. It is better done than any melodrama with in recent memory. It is pure, clean and wholesome, what more ought one to expect? And such a company. Every member an artist to the finger tips.

He will present that great comic opera success, "El Capitán," which created such a furore when first put on the stage, and which is continuing to fill the houses where it is played. Among the principals are Miss Anna Marie Tyler, Ethel Balch, Bessie Fairburn, Luella Schott, Lillian Lord, Mr. Jos. W. Smith, John Henderson, Wm. Herman West, Albert Wilder and George Lord.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character, far from it. From Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Pander's germs, causing it to become totally bald. It was weaker time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Vichy's Hairdressing.

THE WEATHER.

Washington Nov. 18.—For Ohio Fair, continued cold tonight and Thursday, fresh west winds.

Hundred thousand put out of employment since Nov. 1. "Stand Pat"
and "Editor."

Harris wants to be opposed to Gen. Wood, and that necessarily means he is opposed to Roosevelt.

Democracy as a rule are temperate in eating, drinking and politics, but they may lay to Gormandize within the next year.

The four fellows who escape from the late presidential mansion are of the firm and sustainable opinion that some presidents have no more liberty than others.

If the president will not earnestly about stamping out corruption, he should consider it an honor to Ohio, and add the backs of the late republican statesmen to his collection.

All the people of Lima of their two dollar bill to Panama, this will be a new business from now they will be as good as their thirty dollar Panama to Panama, providing Company is willing.

Those Panama canal commissioners not here so quick after the republican declaration of independence and its recognition by the United States, that it seems probable they started
several days before it all happened.

The spouting of a mastodon tooth in Denmark's city, Monday, is a matter that should create no undue excitement at this particular time. The very fact that the country went republican at the last election makes it reasonable to expect strange and wild things to happen within its limits.

Republican editors should not waste their brain tissue in harping out who will be the next republican nominee for vice president. After Hanna has decided who shall be the party's "Stand Pat" standard bearer he will name the fellow for second place, and all without the aid of either a black bar curtain, confederates, or republican editorial judgment.

There is trouble in Trinity Lutheran church, at Findlay. The pastor has a new heart for hunting and fishing and he has given up his A. A. goodly parish of his congregation thought him too portly and without mining words, told him that in place of shooting birds and muskrat he had far better remain within the precincts of sinful Findlay and pour hot shot into the devil. The pastor, Rev. Huber, was nettled by the strictures, and the proposed curtailment of the recreation
due to him as well as to all men regardless of profession, and he forthwith handed in his resignation as signer of the flock he had guided for four years.

The politicians found to a split in the chair and all because of a shot gun.

THE ENGINEER'S PLACE

When the wreck of the Baltimore &
Ohio engine was discovered at Sykesville recently the body of the engineer was missing. Yet did anyone suspect that the driver of the locomotive felt himself in danger for the wreck and fled like a potter? Not one. The only theory advanced was that he was crushed beneath the wreckage, and there, indeed, he was found. Such is the confidence with which people may presume upon the heroism of the man who sits on the right hand side of the cab and watches the track ahead.

—Baltimore American.

THE EVENING PAPER.

Morning daily papers are dying hard. All over the country, in large and small cities, they are attempting by fictitious arguments to convince the public that they alone publish fresh news, and that they have a twenty-four hour span of life, while the evening paper has but eight measurely little hours. The Wheeling Telegraph in reply says "It is not a question of length of life but who sees it during its brief existence."

In the majority of localities the evening newspaper is read by the business man at his office and by the mother and children around the home circle at night. Evening is the time to pore over the contents of a newspaper.

The man who goes to his work early
has no time to read the morning paper.
The housewife whose day is busy preparing food and clothing for the family, and getting the children off to school has no moments for mental recreation until supper is over and that makes the evening the logical time of the day for the family to keep posted on current events.

But the news feature. That is the peg on which the morning paper hangs its claim for greatness.

The afternoon paper as a rule, gets to press about half past three. At that hour, the principal business of this country for that day is closed. In Europe, it has been finished for hours.
In fact the business and happenings
political and otherwise on the continent began near the time the morning paper went to press, and closed
just about the hour when the press associations began gathering. The news for the afternoon paper—giving it therefore many hours advantage over its morning competitor.

The Times-Democrat, being an evening paper, has these advantages, and it takes hold of them through the Associated Press and a capable corps of local news gatherers whose instructions are to bring in all the clean, wholesome incidents of the day, and not the unwholesome things happening
under cover of night.

If you doubt the above statements,
take a morning paper, place it side by side with the Times-Democrat of the evening before, and then check one against the other for the happenings of yesterday. You will find all the important events of yesterday repeated in the morning paper with but little if any additional news of import.

The long, winter evenings are close to investigate and form your own conclusions but in order to make comparisons, it will be necessary for you to have the Times-Democrat come to your fire side. It is willing to take a chance with your honest opinion.

CLOSING DAY OF MEETING

Found Delegates to W. C. T. U.
Convention Present With Unabated Interest.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 18.—The closing day of the thirtieth national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, found the delegates late in assembling, but interest in the proceedings was unabated.
At the preliminary meeting, Mrs. E.
M. Adams, of Kansas spoke on "The question of the Hour, or White Slavery." A delegate rising to a question of privilege read a letter from a member of congress, saying that there was but little prospect of the passage of any bill, repealing the anti-cane law.

Mrs. Lucie Thurman, of Michigan, colored, made an interesting report
of the progress of the temperance work among the colored people saying that in Texas, the temperance workers of colored blood are among the most effective crusaders against the supremacy of the saloons.

CHIPPEWAS SEE PRESIDENT.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, presented to the president today, a delegation of Chip-peewa Indians. The Indians urged the president to direct the interior department to modify the regulations of the department regarding the sale of land belonging to the Chippewas.

FARMER MURDERED.

BIG DEAL IN STEEL.

Rockefellers Who Have Acquired Control of U. S. Steel Want More.

Their Agents Are Figuring on the Purchase
Outright of the Republic Iron & Steel Co.'s Properties, They Being the Strongest Competitors.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 18.—There is every reason to believe that in addition to acquiring control of the U. S.
Steel Corporation, John D. Rockefeller
and his associates have opened negotiations with a view to bringing the Republic Iron and Steel Company, the big rival of the Steel Trust within their domination.

A conference was held here yesterday between A. W. Thompson, president of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, and Charles J. Guthrie, former president of the American Steel Hoop Co., which it is said, was in regard to the purchase of the Republic Iron and Steel Company's properties by the United Steel Corporation. It is said that following the Rockefeller's securing control of the U. S. Steel Co.'s stock that it is the intention to take up the Republic plants. The deal which is one of the biggest ever undertaken in the history of the steel industry, will probably be taken over by the steel trust of the Youngstown Iron, Sheet and Tube Co.

It is known that the Rockefeller's are desirous of extending their control to the Republic, which is the strongest competitor of the trust.

DESPONDENT OVER BUSINESS.

St. Louis, Mo. Nov. 18.—Edgar Laurencelle, representing a Chicago manufacturing concern was found dead of a self-inflicted bullet wound today. He left a letter addressed to his wife at No. 3 Tremont street, Boston. Despondency over business and separation from his family are believed to prompt the act.

BAD DAY FOR ANARCHISTS.

Nice, France, Nov. 18.—The police
here have arrested four anarchists, who are suspected of the intention of waylaying the king of Italy on his return from England.

He Aimed High.
Paris, Nov. 18.—A despatch to the Patrie from Lugano Switzerland announces that an anarchist has surrendered to the police there and has confessed that he had been selected to kill the president of Switzerland,

but his courage failed him.

DENVER HAD FAIR TASTE.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 18.—Three degrees above zero was recorded in Denver, this morning. At Pueblo, the thermometer touched zero and mountain towns report the temperature running from 10 to 15 degrees below zero.
Many families are short of coal and retail dealers in this city and other large companies which still have a stock of coal in storage are taking care of their regular customers, but cannot supply others promptly.

CHARLEY GETS GAY.

Great Majority Figurer Tells House of Calamity That Will Come.

Unless Roosevelt Is Re-Elected. Declares Republicans Will Revise Tariff. That Democrats Cannot Gain Power Under Two Years.

Washington Nov 18—The house re mark of Mr. Swanson (Va.) he said there need be no fear of retaliation from a country which could not live 90 days without purchases and supplies from the outside.

Answering a statement made by Mr. Clark (Mo.) as to conditions existing when Mr. Cleveland went in as president Mr. Grosvenor said:

Immediately upon the election of Cleveland there was practically a suppression of the income of the revenues of the government into the treasury of the United States. It was natural, it was inevitable. It would happen again if somebody other than Roosevelt should be elected president next year.

MILLER CASE TESTIMONY IS

Closed and Result Will Be in the Hands of Jury by Tonight.

Cincinnati O., Nov. 18—The trial of D. V. Miller of Terre Haute formerly an assistant attorney in the post office department at Washington, and of J. M. Johns of Rockville Ind. for an alleged conspiracy to extort bribes, Jos. Watson occupied the witness stand yesterday.

Watson is secretary to Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, and was concealed behind Bristow's high roller desk at the time Miller was first confronted with the charges regarding the rulings for John J. Ryan & Company turf commission to continue the use of the mails. Watson read his stenographic notes of the questions propounded at that time by stenographers and Chief Inspector Cochran and the replies of Miller the latter not knowing at the time that he was being fully reported.

Baker Cross examined Watson regarding the apparent changes and erasures and offered Watson's stenographic notes in evidence. Objection was sustained because the book contained notes of other investigations by Bristow. The stenographic notes were passed among the jurors so that Watson could take them to Washington. After stenographer Tullis wrote out this interview Miller signed it. This report was submitted to show contradictions in Miller's former interview when he did not know Watson was present. Charles T. Nolan, of St. Louis, testified to being Ryan's attorney while the post office inspectors were investigating him last November. Objection was made to Nolan testifying about what Ryan said about Johns showing a letter from Miller at the Fillbeck Hotel in Terre Haute. After arguments court reserved its decision.

Closed Today.

Cincinnati Nov. 18—The government today closed its evidence in the trial of D. V. Miller and J. M. Johns, charged with conspiracy to extort tribute from John J. Ryan a turf commissioner. It is expected that the case will go to the jury tomorrow. Postoffice Inspector R. M. Fulton testified to his investigations of the Ryan concern and reporting that its business was not proper for the mails.

Additional reports of inspectors and telegrams between the defendants and Ryan were offered as the closing evidence. The defense opened with the introduction of a number of witnesses who testified to the good character of the defendants.

Joseph M. Johns in his arguments went over the story of his dealing with Ryan showing by checks and vouchers what was done with the $4,000 secured from John J. Ryan none going to D. V. Miller.

OPERATION OF GRAFTING

An Ear Upon Head of Western Millionaire Successfully Performed.

Surgeon Under Bond Not to Reveal Name of Client. District Attorney Prevented Operation in New York.

Philadelphia Nov. 18—Dr. Andrew L. Nelden of New York today performed the operation of grafting an ear upon the head of a western millionaire whose name the surgeon said he is under bond not to reveal. The operation was to have been performed in New York but District Attorney Jerome is said to have interfered. Dr. Nelden advertised for a man willing to sell an ear for $5,000 and of 100 applicants he selected a young German who conducts a restaurant in New York.

Dr. Nelden said today the operation has been performed and promises to be successful. I am under legal contract and heavily bonded not to reveal the name of my patient. Generally speaking he is a wealthy man from the west. How he lost one ear I don't know. It appears to have been cut off with a sharp instrument. I believe he says it was accidental but I never asked him to explain.

CHARGE AGAINST WOOD.

Washington Nov. 18—Mr. Fordney (Repn Mich.) in speaking on the Cuban bill said he wanted to criticize Major General Wood for it had been proved that he had extracted from those poor starving Cubans, $20,000 which he had paid to Thurber to influence legislation. Oh, what action

FORTUNATE
Were Those Prepared for the Cold Snap.

Consumers of the Steam Heat of the Lima Electric Light and Power Company Are Elated.

There is scarcely any preparation so much to be appreciated as that of having heat when a sudden cold snap comes such as the Lima people are experiencing at the present time, and there is no class of Lima people so fortunate as those who had the steam heat of the Lima Street Railway and Light Co. at their disposal when last night's northwest wind arrived from climates much colder.

This has been the first very cold day of the autumn season and it was rather sudden, but not one complaint has been made by the consumers of this steam heating system, on grounds of not having plenty of warmth. There is but one way to keep a building warm at all times and that is to be prepared at all times.

Any place of business is made more inviting during the cold busy holidays by being well heated and those merchants in Lima who are prepared to meet all the varying conditions of the thermometer in the changeable climate find themselves now to be most fortunate ones.

This system of steam heating is not expensive enough to be a luxury but cheap and convenient enough to be a necessity as any of the present consumers will vouch for.

TWENTY DEGREES BELOW.

Chicago Nov. 18—The cold wave continued today with undiminished severity over the western and central states. In Montana, the temperature fell still further, a minimum of 26 degrees below zero being reported at Havre. In Minneapolis, the temperature had reached 4 above and at Chicago, 14 above. The indications are that the cold wave will continue for a few days.

A STORY OF CRIME WITH A NEW SYSTEM.

Russian Students Try Injecting Poison Into Victim With Syringe. The Point Broke and Defeated Their Well Laid Plans.

With the opening of a large wicker basket at the Moscow station of the Moscow-Brest railway recently a puzzling, intricate mystery involving murder and robbery was presented.

With the arrest of three young Russians, just out of university, the police authorities believe they have solved this mystery.

The steps in the unfolding of the crime, combined with the manner in which it was committed, make it one of the sensational cases which achieve international renown in criminology.

What gives the story of this crime special interest is that the murderers devised a new and novel method of committing the murder. To the fact that it was not entirely successful they owe their arrest. If it had worked perfectly as planned there might have been no question that the man died a natural death.

Finally Resorted to Strangling.

The man was killed by an injection of poison from a hypodermic syringe inserted in his cheek. The point of the syringe broke in the slight wound and the murderers made sure of their work by strangling their victim.

To follow the case as the police developed the facts, it was thus:

The suspicions of the Moscow police were aroused by the unloading of a large wicker basket which had been sent to the Moscow-Brest railway from Minsk. They demanded that the basket be opened, and their suspicions were verified when the removal of the cover revealed the body of a man.

Apparently a murder had been committed. The victim was a man of 35 years. He was well dressed and on his finger was a diamond ring of value and another costly diamond was in a pin in his hair.

The body had been doubled up that it might occupy a small space. The features were regular and not distorted. There were no superficial evidences of crime, and the fact that the wounds had not been taken indicated that if any one had killed the man robbery had not been the motive.

The police came to the conclusion that they had to deal with a crime which found its origin in motives of revenge or hatred.

Abrasion Reveals Method.

A further examination showed that a small cord was tied tightly around the neck. Still no wound could be found, but presently a slight abrasion of the skin on the cheek was observed. Careful examination revealed the fact that the point of a syringe had been broken off in the small wound and that a part of it still remained there.

The greatest safeguard against sickness is to keep the system up to such a defensive standard that it will be able to throw off the germs of disease. Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with Hypophosphites) gives resistive force by purifying and enriching the blood, and by making good flesh. It cures, as well as prevents, coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption, nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion, mal-assimilation, weakened conditions following fevers, etc. Hagee's Cordial contains all the good of cod liver oil—without the fishy, greasy taste and unpleasant smell.

Sold by all druggists. Prepared by Ketchikan Chemical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

It was at once concluded that the victim had been poisoned by an injection from a syringe, and that strangulation had been resorted to in order to make sure of death.

An active search was begun immediately by experienced detectives. Men were dispatched to Minsk and inquiries were made among railroad officials and cabmen. Telegrams which had been sent from the Minsk offices were examined. It was discovered that the basket had been brought to Minsk by a man coming from Vilna.

This man had been imprudent, as the worst criminals frequently are. He had sent a telegram from Minsk to some friends in Vilna announcing that the errand on which he had been dispatched had been accomplished successfully.

Police activity then was transferred from Minsk to Vilna, and facts soon rewarded the investigation. For the first time the name of the victim was learned. Later the whole story was developed.

Victim Is of Noble Birth.

Martin Tomashevsky the murdered man, belonged to the nobility. He had inherited a large amount of money a short time before the tragedy, coming into possession of considerable real estate and a large bank account.

His life, previous to this inheritance, was one of wildness. He had been given to drinking and gambling. From this life he had gradually divorced himself since his accession to wealth and was living at a hotel with his mother and sisters.

It had been their intention to go abroad soon and for this purpose he had drawn a considerable sum of money from the bank. Before leaving Vilna he had decided to make one more night of it with some card playing cronies with whom he had been associated.

These men knew of his intention and they also knew that he had drawn the money and was carrying it with him. They knew he would have the money with him when he sat down to the game of cards and their plans were made accordingly. Who devised the plan of committing the murder with the poison injection is not known. The young men with whom he sat down in the last game of cards and who have been arrested by the police were Romanuk, Maletsky and two others named Holden and Danksch. They have denied their guilt strongly.

When the four were seated at the table Maletsky, it is presumed, suddenly grasped the victim by the throat, stifling his cries. One of the two others drew the syringe filled with poison and while the man was held, injected the drug in his cheek.

Plan Fails by Accident.

His struggles, while not able to release him or to make his danger known to other persons in the house, were sufficient to prevent the steadiness of hand necessary to poison him without leaving a trace of the needle. The end of the syringe broke in the incision.

The murderers were thus foiled in their attempt to make it appear that death would be certain. There is reason to believe that as they were robbing him they were threatened with interruption from the servants and were obliged to leave the diamond ring and pin untouched. They were forced to pack the body in the basket, which was hastily secured, and forgot to take off the jewels.

Then the basket with its contents was taken to Minsk by one of the young men and thence shipped by express to Moscow. The young men sent the telegram to relieve the suspense of his associates, and this telegram proved the first clue pointing to the perpetrators of the deed.

Crime Is Traced Home.

The police traced the various steps of the murderers with certainty. They found that the basket had been bought at a market stall and had been taken to the lodgings of one of the three. They discovered also that it had been taken away from his home and brought back again the same evening by three men, and that on the following day it had been taken to the railroad station in a cab.

The game of cards had been played at the home of Maletsky, and it was found that he had sent his servant on a far errand that night. It was the return of this servant which threatened to interrupt the murderers when they were robbing their victim.

They discovered that Maletsky the day following had sent for floor polishers, presumably to remove all traces which might lead to suspicion being directed against him. While these polishers were at work the servant had picked up a pocketbook containing 100 rubles and had handed it to Maletsky.

It was discovered that the three young men had been playing cards in the room where the murder had taken place. With this evidence against them they were arrested and are awaiting trial. The prisoners have made highly little doubt of their guilt.

THE DOG REMEMBERED.

A gentleman who is a great traveler and who is always accompanied in his wanderings by a bull terrier, to which he is much attached, arrived one day in the city of Florence. His dog was for some reason intrusted to the care of a porter at the station, and in the excitement of the crowd and under the unusual experience of being separated from his master, who generally kept the animal with him, Bruno was moved to make his escape, says the Youth's Companion.

The most careful search was made, and before going to the hotel, the traveler went to the police station to notify the gendarmes of his loss. It was more than an hour before he reached his hotel. When he got there he spoke of his loss, so that if anything was heard of the dog, it would be understood that the animal belonged to him. To his astonishment, the porter said:

"But your dog is here, sir. He came before you, and we did not know to whom he belonged."

"The dog is here," repeated the gentleman, in surprise. "How came he here?"

"He ran in, sir, about half an hour ago, and after sniffing about the office for a while, he ran up stairs. I gave orders to have him driven out, but the boys have been busy, and he is up there somewhere now."

The traveler, of course, went up stairs at once, and there on the mat before the chamber numbered forty-four, lay Bruno, who sprang up with the most frantic demonstrations of delight at finding his master again.

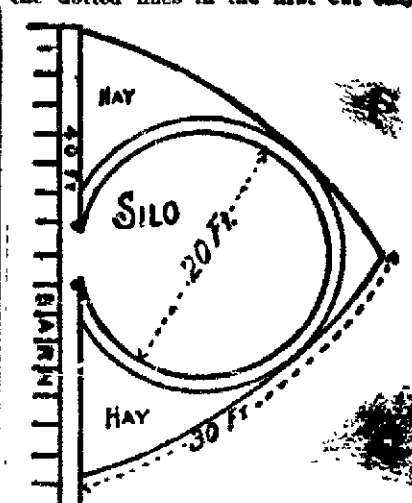

The gentleman remembered that two years previous he had been with the dog in Florence, and had staid at this hotel. He did not remember that he had occupied this particular room, but as reference to the hotel register, such was found to be the fact.

FARM AND GARDEN

SILO CONSTRUCTION.

Plans For Learning and Weather-boarding the Silo.

An Ohio man who has been advocating the building of lath and cement silos tells, in Ohio Farmer, how he would locate and weatherboard them. He says: To weatherboard a silo 20 feet in diameter over 60 feet circumference must be covered, which, added to a 40 foot barn width, makes 100 feet to cover. If adding to an old barn take the siding from the end and enclose the silo in a triangle, making some extra stable and mow room, and we find the space to cover shown by the dotted lines in the first cut only measures sixty feet, a saving of the original weatherboarding on a barn end. A new barn should be built that way, provided one is not prepared to adopt the plan of the second cut, making a nice stable about the silo. Many favorable comments are made by our friends on these silo plans, but they fear the expense and seek something cheaper than the stable about the silo.

All are agreeing on the matter of more protection from cold, especially those who have small silos of the stave pattern exposed to the winds. Rough, open weatherboarding is very little better. The natural and surest way to accomplish this is to keep the silo warm by the heat the ensilage produces when fed to the cows by the air of their stable circulating about the silo. It has been a favorite plan to build some four to six feet from the barn and weatherboard that about or neck, getting in an extra bill of expense for the supposed necessary way to climb up the silo and throw ensilage down. In almost all such cases room has been accessible inside of the barn frame at very much less expense.

With the price of siding as high as it is now we do well to carefully consider our plans before we begin work. An extension of the barn roof is the economical way to cover the silo when the gable to the barn is high enough to insure sufficient depth of pit. Some have made a great mistake by making breadth instead of height, getting the right capacity, but exposing too much surface to feed from and for ensilage to spoil over before beginning to feed.

Timely Work.
Now is a good time to trim up fence rows and to burn the brush piles in order to destroy the breeding places of rabbits, insects and weeds.

Cuttings of gooseberries and currants may be taken. Use only the wood of the current year's growth, making the cuttings about a foot long. Strip off the leaves if they have not already fallen, tie the cuttings in large bundles and bury them in a cold cellar or in a sandy, well drained knoll, or if the cutting bed is well prepared and well drained they may be planted immediately, the bed being well mulched upon the approach of winter.

September and October are good months in which to set orchards, provided the ground is well prepared and well drained and is not too much exposed to sweeping winds. Wet lands should never be set in the fall, and such lands are not fit for orchards.

Strawberries may still be set; also bush fruits.

The Laying Shape Is a Hen.
I always want capacity in the hen. I want length of body or depth of body.

says an American Agriculturist correspondent. The hen makes her eggs from food, but there are certain places where you do not like to have her store her food. She has two places to put her fat—namely, on top of her tail and down under her tail. I do not like to have my hen load near the tail. I want her broad at the back and triangular in body. You can pick out that shape in any breed. I should at once dispose of any hen that began to bag down behind, so that it is caused by almost a clear deposit of fat.

Had Rheumatism

Thirty Years. Cured by "Blood Wine" After a Life of Misery. A Wonderful Tribute to This Great Medicine.

This is Mrs. G. W. Pierce of 1822 Wayne St., Toledo, O., who suffered untold agonies for thirty long years with rheumatism. This brave woman—

—for anyone is brave who endures in silence the pangs of rheumatism for such a period—needs not read the tales of "Auld Lang Syne" to learn of miracles; she has experienced one herself, and nothing could be half so forcible to her as her own experience, because she today lives in happiness, a well woman free from the rheumatism pains that haunted her for the best part of her life. She is today well after doctored almost since girlhood without relief and her cure was caused by "Blood Wine." After dozens of medicines, dozens of doctors, had all tested their wits, Mrs. Pierce took "Blood Wine" and was quickly cured.

She was not justified in saying: "Dear Sir,—For over thirty years I have suffered with the ravages of rheumatism. I have tried doctors and patent medicine of every kind without result or benefit until I began to take 'Blood Wine.' The first bottle gave me such marked benefit that I have since taken five bottles, each adding additional results so much so that I feel confident of a complete cure. I recommend 'Blood Wine' after it has done so much for me is a pleasure, after the many years I have suffered and sleepless nights, all of which have been swiftly relieved. I can truthfully say, and 'Blood Wine' has done the work."

Couldn't Go to His Office for Weeks.
Mr. A. J. Kelley, a prominent lawyer, of Terra Haute, Ind., had rheumatism so badly that he couldn't go to his office for weeks at a time. Nothing seemed to help him until he took "Blood Wine." These are his own words: "I have taken three bottles of 'Blood Wine' and must say that in my case its action has been marvelous. It has completely cured me of rheumatism, a disease from which I have suffered for a long time. It is by far the best thing I ever saw."

Mr. Chas. T. Johnson, of 19 Bently Street, Salem, Mass., says: "My wife has used 'Blood Wine' for rheumatism, and found relief when all other remedies failed, and I gladly recommend it to others."

FREE! Send your name to the LOUIS DAUDELIN CO., Makers, Worcester, Mass., and get a free trial bottle of "Blood Wine."

EMPHATIC TALK

The Kind That Carries Conviction to Every Lima Reader.

Conviction must follow such emphatic proof as is given here. The testimony of Lima residents should satisfy the most skeptical. Here is a Lima case. Read it and see if doubt can exist in the face of this evidence.

Mrs. M. M. Myers of 718 West Elm street, says: "There was a constant dull aching through my back. I could not rest in any position either sitting, lying or standing and at times was so lame and sore all over that I could hardly get up or down. The secretions from the kidneys were highly colored and deposited a heavy sediment. I suffered terribly from sick headaches and felt at times as though I could not get better. I was advised by friends to try Donal's Kidney Pills and acting on their advice, I procured a supply at Melville's drug store and soon noticed a decided improvement. After completing a course I was entirely cured and there has been no return of the trouble since."

Water Mark at the County Jail Is Recorded.

Twenty-four Prisoners Were Registered

On a Single Day and Twenty-one Are Still in Durance Vile.

Illness of Prosecuting Attorney Klinger Made It Necessary to Adjourn Court Until Noon Today.

The largest number of prisoners in jail at any one time during the term of Sheriff Barr, and, so far as any record shows, in the history of the county, has been marked up for this term there being 26 registered. At present there are 24, three of whom are women. Two of the latter are serving time for misdemeanors and one is being held to await the action of the next grand jury on the charge of larceny.

Of the men, nine have been bound over to the grand jury and will be held until the January term of court. One has been found guilty and is awaiting sentence, two are yet to be tried, one is held as a witness and three are boarding out at a jail sentence.

The trial interrupted.

There was an interruption in the Ames Young case today, occasioned by the illness of Prosecuting Attorney Klinger, who asked for a postponement of the trial until noon, that he might recover in part from the effect of a hard chill he had during the night.

He was able to proceed this afternoon with the examination of witnesses, but a portion of the time was given to the presentation of exhibits which include the books used in the

Cutting Down of the Forces On the C. & E.

Shops at Huntington Are Closed Down.

Reduction of About 60 Per Cent on Chicago-Marion Line.

Rumors in New York and Toledo That the Vanderbilts Are About to Secure Control of the Clover Leaf.

The general curtailment of the operating expenses of the Chicago-Marion division of the Erie railroad is reaching a very unusual and distressing degree. On Saturday, the general repair shops at Huntington, Ind., where from 200 to 400 men have been employed for years, were closed down for an indefinite period of time. In addition to this big reduction of the force of employees at Huntington, section men are being laid off at all points along the line between Chicago and Marion, and no explanation for the unusual and unexpected reduction is made by the officials of the road. The curtailment of forces has already reached about 60 per cent and no one seems to know how much further it will reach before the end of the winter.

After the Clover Leaf

There is a very persistent rumor afloat in both Toledo and New York that the Clover Leaf railroad is about to pass into the hands of the Vanderbilts. It is said that the price asked for the property was considered too high by the Vanderbilt interests and that they will secure control by purchasing a majority of the stock.

Mr. C. S. Dryden, who has been a clerk in the local freight house of the C. & E. for several years, has been transferred to the freight house at Toledo. The change is in the nature of a promotion and Mr. Dryden's many friends here extend congratulations.

More New Engines.

During the past year, the C. & E. railroad has added a number of fine engines to the equipment, all of which are of the big Pittsburg type, and they have been scattered over the various divisions. Two new ones arrived today and another will follow, two of which will be used for freight delivery and the other on passenger trains on this division.

Laid Trains Out.

Another delay of traffic on the Pennsylvania was occasioned yesterday evening by the breaking of an axle beneath a car of coke, just as the train was crossing the canal bridge at Delphos. The wreck train was called from Crestline and passenger train No. 35 was delayed nearly two hours.

Winter Schedule.

A new schedule for passenger trains east and west over the Pennsylvania will go into effect next Sunday.
